

$5 Sexual Consent Analogy

If you ask me for $5, and I'm too drunk to say yes or no, it's not Okay to then go take $5 out of my purse...just because I didn't say no.

If you put a gun to my head to get me to give you $5, you still stole $5 even if physically handed you $5.

If I let YOU borrow $5, that doesn't give the right for your FRIEND to take $5 out of my purse.

"But you gave him some, why can't I?"

If you steal $5 and I can't prove it in court, that does NOT mean you didn't steal $5.

Just because I gave you $5 in the past, doesn't mean I have to give you $5 in the future.

If you can understand alllllll of that, how do you not understand the concept of rape?

And to think a man said "Well she sat on his lap & went to his house." Okay, if I ask you to hold my purse, does that mean you can take $?
